120 years of Inspiration!

Started in 1898, as a simple joinery, Häcker today is a specialist producer of modern fitted kitchens fulfilling the highest claims in terms of quality, innovation, functionality and durability in the industry.

Häcker delivers kitchens in The European Union, Americas and 60 other countries in Middle East, Asia, Far East and the Pacific from its single Manufacturing unit in Roedinghausen, Germany.

PRODUCT RANGE:

Häcker offers customized modular kitchens for every segment—ranging from mid to high—end.

Häcker front styles range from over 163 different options in material surfaces, colors & styles.

The variety of these fronts range from laminates, veneer, lacquer paint in matt & high gloss surfaces, glass and ceramic finishes giving you plenty of options to mix & match to create the perfect look and design.

Unique to Häcker:

■ Häcker is Quality..

An innovative Edge Bonding Technology for not just the fronts, but also carcasses and surrounding materials with PUR-bonding making your kitchen completely tropicalized against moisture and steam that arise everyday in kitchens.

■ Häcker is Sustainable..

From now on, all Häcker wooden materials are even further reduced from use of Formaldehyde, therefore making your kitchen practically emission free allowing you to feel safe from cancer causing fumes commonly seen in locally used wooden materials.

■ Häcker is Certified..

Häcker has the RAL quality seal of approval for tested safety and quality management of its systems, which is certified in accordance with DIN ISO-9001 certification

■ Häcker is Innovative and Awarded many times..

CELEBRATING 15 YEARS IN INDIA:

Kanu Kitchen Culture Pvt. Ltd. launched the Häcker brand in India in 2004 after recognizing a need for high quality products and superior service in the country. We are currently present in 11 major cities in India through our exclusive display centres. In addition, we have strategic partnerships with Siemens, Bosch, Miele, Blaupunkt and Asko home appliances as well as LIEBHERR for refrigerators and wine chillers and Kitchen Aid for small appliances to provide a complete range of Electrical appliances for any Kitchen range.

With the aim to provide one-stop solutions to its clients, in 2010, the company successfully Launched German Furniture brands like Hülsta, a leader in Living and Bedroom furniture and Rolf Benz for premium Sofas. A recent addition to the display has been an Italian Brand, Flou which is a market leader for its unique Bedroom solutions.
